

The Doris Duke Conservation Scholars Program at the University of Michigan is looking for the future pioneers in the changing field of conservation

Doris Duke Conservation Scholars are eager to be immersed in an experiential learning program that incorporates diversity and inclusion into their understanding of conservation practices.

WHY DDCSP AT UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN?

- Create mentor relationships with UM SNRE faculty and researchers.
- Network in Ann Arbor with an active local conservation community.
- Connect with other passionate undergraduate students.
- $4,250 stipend, room and board, round-trip travel to and from Ann Arbor.
- 8 week conservation-focused fellowship opportunity (for two consecutive years).

Program Dates: June 4th - July 29th 2017

Application Available November 2016

For more information and application materials please visit:

ddcsp-umich.com

SNRE DORIS DUKE CONSERVATION
SCHOLARS PROGRAM
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN